FertileSpirit™ Retreat Specialists

Ian Wahl, is a board certified and state licensed Doctor of acupuncture and holds a Masters of Oriental Medicine as well as founder and director of both the Wahls of Wellness and the Natural Fertility Health Centers. Dr. Wahl is also a certified hypnotherapist. Through guided meditations, Dr. Wahl teaches women how to open their intuition, open and heal their chakras (energy centers in the body), and fill their spirits enabling them to open their hearts to the spirit of the baby that has chosen them. Dr. Wahl specializes in reproductive wellness and women's health. His successful Integrated Dynamic Fertility™ program offers a unique blending of eastern and western medicine integrated with essential oils, healing meditations, and spiritual awareness practices.

Beverly Wahl is a certified Spiritual Intuitive, clairvoyant medium, and is certified as an Angel Therapy Practitioner® by Doreen Virtue, Ph.D. Beverly's specialty is uncovering and removing the spiritual blocks that prevent a woman from conceiving and carrying a baby to term. Beverly uses her clairvoyant gifts and Angel Therapy® training to heal the body and spirit, clear away old energetic patterns, and connect you with the spirit of the baby who has chosen you. She is also trained to use Young Living™ Essential Oils as an aid to help remove and resolve emotional blocks and aid in the healing process.

Our philosophy is simple. We do not believe there are many truly infertile people—just people who are out of balance and out of touch with their FertileSpirit™. We believe that our Innate Intelligence is inherently benevolent and knows what we need to do in order to be happy, healthy, and fertile. However, that wisdom is often blocked by interference, disharmony and energetic imbalances within our bodies, manifesting as illness, dis-ease, or disabling habits including fertility problems. At the Natural Fertility Health Centers we use Oriental Medicine techniques—Acupuncture, herbal and food therapy, meditative and healing visualizations, and spiritual awareness practices, along with therapeutic grade essential oils and structural balancing and soft-tissue therapy, to help guide the body, mind and spirit back into harmony. Symptoms, including fertility problems, resolve naturally as people get in touch with their own healing power and their own FertileSpirit™.

The Fertile Spirit™ Retreat

The FertileSpirit™ Retreat is an intensive long weekend during which we teach you how to make the connections between mind, body and spirit. This is the area that oftentimes becomes disconnected during the process of seeking parenthood. At our FertileSpirit™ Retreats, we empower you to discover and remove the physical, emotional and spiritual blocks that prevent you from discovering your FertileSpirit™ and getting you in touch with the spirit of the baby you were meant to have.

The Fertile Spirit™ Program

Participants will be guided through several workshops and activities that will encourage them to release old thought patterns, create healthy new ones, and bring them to a new awareness of their inner selves. Some of these activities include:

- ♥ A workshop to help you open up to your intuition and the many gifts you already possess. You will realize a new awareness of yourself, and learn how to use these gifts to your advantage to receive what you want!
- ♥ Several specially developed guided meditations that heal the spirit, nurture the soul and teach you to connect and communicate with the Angel Baby™ of your dreams!
- ♥ Several ceremonies that help release self-defeating patterns, manifest what your heart desires, and help you break out of the chrysalis of your former self to emerge as the beautiful FertileSpirit™ you have always been!

What Women are Saying about the Fertile Spirit™ Retreat

“This was a wonderful and intimate experience. I enjoyed the interaction with the women and the presenters. Beverly and Ian are awesome and gave so much of their love and energy to each of us. I would highly recommend a FertileSpirit™ Retreat to anyone trying to get pregnant. We are having our daughter around the holidays!” D.G.

“It was an amazing spiritual journey. I feel so connected to my spirit baby. All women should do this retreat regardless of their fertility issues. We are expecting our first child soon!”. N.M.

“Thank you so much for making me a part of this weekend. I went into it unsure of what to expect. I left feeling more grounded, calmer and sure that our dreams will become a reality. I took with me the tools and skills I needed to take care of myself along with the connection I felt with these other women who understand first-hand what I’ve been going through. I became pregnant on my own soon after the retreat!” A.T.

“No words can explain what the experience of this retreat was like, but my personal actions and feelings afterwards definitely exposed a new me, which is amazing. Everyone takes away what they need, which is the beauty of it. We got pregnant soon after the retreat and are expecting our first child in the winter!” N.M.

“The FertileSpirit™ retreat was very relaxing and helped me connect with my spirit baby. I am more open to allowing things to happen as they want to happen instead of me always trying to make them happen. I can let go and relax knowing that my spirit baby is coming soon. It was worth every penny. Thank you, Beverly and Dr. Ian for giving so much to us during the retreat.. I got pregnant soon after the retreat after trying for years!” K.S.

“The FertileSpirit™ Retreat was more than I could have ever expected! Thank you, Beverly and Ian for everything!! I would and have recommended this retreat to anyone going through fertility challenges. We conceived soon after the retreat!” J.M.

“I feel so honored to be a part of everyone’s journey. So grateful. I feel connected to each woman here. Many things were confirmed for me. Thank you for including me in the retreat. I am so grateful to have Dr. Ian and Beverly in my life. Thank you for giving me life. We are expecting our second child soon!” L.H.
